

Deadline

Rough Silk

Way beyond the deadline - time keeps marchin' on
No chance to rest - nowhere to sleep - I'm here but Already gone
Way beyond the deadline it's silent wet and dark
And when you hear the timebomb tickin' - remember the Evil's mark

Way beyond the deadline
All you see is a flashning sign
Deadline

Way beyond the deadline - every move you make Feels like "home is where the heart is" - but how many Heart attacks can you take
Way beyond the deadline - maybe you should hold your Breath
But when your fantasy kills reality it's your creativity's Silent death

Way beyond the deadline
All you see is a flashning sign
Deadline

Seconds - minutes - hour - days
Fearless nights and wicked ways
The lawyer's screaming : "mine all mine !
'Cause you know where you are, man ?
You're out, buddy !
You're lost way beyond - the almighty - deadline !"

Way beyond the deadline
All you see is a flashning sign
Deadline

Tic Toc Tic Toc - There's a timebomb tickin' in my Blackened heart
When you got left behind you gotta get back to the start
Deadline.....
