

Shut Me Down

Rowland S. Howard

Well so long baby,
I've had enough,
I can't ignore it,
I miss you so much

I miss you so much

I'm standing in a suit
As ragged as my nerves,
And I agree
What I've become,
Is surely worth the hatred
That you spat on me,

The night above

So deep and dark
That I could slip and drown
And still I see,
That you would dearly love,
To shut me down

Well so long soldier,
We're deep in dutch,
I can't ignore it,
I miss you so much

I miss you so much

I'm standing in a suit
As ragged as my nerves,
And I agree
What I've become,
Is surely worth the hatred
That you spat on me,

The night above me
So deep and dark
That I could slip and drown
And still I see,
That you would dearly love,
To shut me down

I miss you so much

I miss you so much
