Out of the Blue

All your cares Now they seem Oh, so far away All your fears I fear I once shared

Now I know There's a future For all of us Not so long ago I was so scared

You seemed so sad I could see Through your twisted smile So unsure Always confused

Pale blue eyes Gazing down From your ivory tower Through the haze All broken and bruised

Then out of the blue Love came rushing in Out of the sky Came the sun Out of left field Came a lucky day Out of the blue No more pain

I don't mind This it's only A passing craze Throwaway lines Often ring true

If I were you I would stay For a little while If you were me Would you walk out In style? Roxy Music
