

Playing Games

Roy Harper

I wonder how I'm gonna be able to live
With you and me or without us both
Sometimes I feel so much more I can give
There must be someplace nearer the truth

Playin' games you don't believe
Tellin' me you want to leave
What you tryin' to achieve
With so little up your sleeve?

It kinda feels like everything's passing so fast
Keepin' myself straight as this track
You spend the lifetime worryin' that it won't last
Makin' me run 'til I come runin' back

Playin' games you don't believe
Tellin' me you want to leave
What you tryin' to achieve
With so little up your sleeve?

I am so selfish I can't see my own selfishness
While you cling like glue and a glove
How do I haul myself back to a settle for less?
When everyday I'm fallin' in love

Playin' games you don't believe
Tellin' me you want to leave
What you tryin' to achieve
With so little up your sleeve?

Playin' games you don't believe
Tellin' me you want to leave
What you tryin' to achieve
With so little up your sleeve?

Playin' games you don't believe
Tellin' me you want to leave
What you tryin' to achieve
With so little up your sleeve?
