

Alive To See

Royal Bliss

We wanna be there in the end
And I push it at the edge
Yeah I'm now the only way
To make or break
You know that I won't be [?]

Alive to see the world tear the walls
And break it up in black
Can you hear me now?
They're burning up the streets
I'd love to set you free
Then leave it all behind
Can you hear me now?

I've seen the places in between
And I know [?] so clean
When you see the ocean I...
Well I made the waves
You know that I won't be the same

Alive to see the world tear the walls
And break it up in black
Can you hear me now?
They're burning up the streets
I'd love to set you free
Then leave it all behind
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?

Hear me!

Alive to see the world tear the walls
And break it up in black
Can you hear me now?
They're burning up the streets
I'd love to set you free
Then leave it all behind
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?

Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
