

Light of the Moon

Royal Bliss

You're covered in stitches but nobody tells me a thing
I fear for you love, I'm afraid what the future will bring
I know that it hurts you, it's tearing me apart
But anything's better than being alone in the dark

And I'm standing there
On the edge
And I'm looking out

Where did you go
I've been missing
Someone to hold
You don't listen
All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon

Lay under the covers dreaming of you tonight
But the cold from your pillow is shaking me back to life

And I'm standing there
On the edge

Where did you go
I've been missing
Someone to hold
You don't listen
All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon
Where did you go
I can feel
You're broke in the heart
I can heal you
All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon

And I'm hoping that everything changes soon
And I'm praying nobody breaks the rules
As I stand here looking out
I keep on lookin' out

Where did you go
I've been missing
Someone to hold
You don't listen
All my life

Where did you go
I can feel
You're broke in the heart
But you don't listen
All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon

All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon
All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon

All my life
I'm caught in the light of the moon
