

Fistful of Misery

Royal Hunt

Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey
Hey

On and on
Gentle whisper turns into a scream
On the floor
Bits and pieces of a broken dream

Guess, it's all over now
Yes, it's all over now

Hey
You're far and away
So leave it to me
To keep a fistful of misery
Hey
The game that you play
You've got to agree
It's adding insult in injury
How does it end now?
What's left to defend, I wonder?
Hey
You're far and away
So all I can see
Is just this fistful of misery
Hey
Is just the fistful of misery
Hey

All these wounds
Are way too deep and they don't seem to heal
All this pain
Slowly killing me, it's just too real

But it's all over now
Yes, it's all over now

Hey
You're far and away
So leave it to me
To keep a fistful of misery
Hey
The game that you play
You've got to agree
It's adding insult in injury
How does it end? - How does it end?
What's left to defend, I wonder?
Hey
You're far and away
So all I can see

You're far and away

Hey
You're far and away
So leave it to me
To keep a fistful of misery
Hey
You've got to agree
How does it end?
What's left to defend, I wonder?
Hey
You're far and away
So all I can see
Is just that fistful of misery
Hey
Hey
Fistful of misery

How does it end now?
What's left to defend, I wonder?
Hey
You're far and away
So all I can see
Fistful of misery
