

Balloon

Royal Wood

Wait wanted to be
Sailing and free
Up in the air a balloon
And oh life settles in
A jab at the chin
Where to begin from here

Life has a funny
Way of creeping up
I should have been a better man

Wait steadfast and true
The plans that I'd do
If not for the schedule
Oh not my bravest of times
I choked on my pride
Ring her up later meanwhile...

Life has a funny
Way of creeping up
I should have been a better man
I should have been all right
I should have been
I could have been

We all have to fade
Worms in our fate
They are just waiting
Waiting for us
So let loose all the lust
Blow off the dust
We are all waiting
Waiting to feel
Rage for a while
Uncover a smile
On the face of a child
Laughing with grace
Beauty in place
The light we contain
From our living I'm saying
We're all built for love

Da...

Wait wanted to be
Sailing and free
Up in the air a balloon
