Weigh Me Down

Royal Wood

We're swimming in the sea my lover We're fluid in our own embrace If this will mark the end of our days Weigh me down...

You're going to have to hold my head up In a whisper you will hear me say If this will mark the end of our days Weigh me down...

I knew we might not be so lucky So luck to outlast the few If this will mark the end of our days Weigh me down...

Oh let me pass slowly
Let me linger here in you hands
Promise I will sink wholly
When you release me from you hands
With love (drowning in love)

Oh let me pass slowly
Let me linger here in you hands
Promise I will sink wholly
When you release me from you hands
With love (drowning in love)
