

God Has Failed

RPWL

You'll never be forgotten
You're always on my mind
I look into the mirror
A good friend is hard to find
Would anyone please tell me
If all was fixed before
This year spring comes to early
'cause God has failed once more
The pictures I have found
You're face looks still the same
Whenever I'm asleep
My heart will call your name
To tell about your life
Is all I can do for you
Your end has come to early
