

Meant To Be

Ruben Studdard

Just take a look at who we are
What do you see?
Let's try to work it out, talk about, figure out
If there's a new you and me
When we have love for ourselves
Only think can we love someone else
If we make a vow we will be all that we're meant to be Yeah, yeah

There was a time when I thought I had lost it all
But you stood by my side, and a God gave me pride
You stop my fall
When it hurt to get through my day
You were strong and you showed me the way
That we hold the key
We can be
All that we're meant to be

Now that my heart it's so free
You know I feel your love all over me
You shine a lot through my darkness
Now I can see
Now I can see

Ooh baby hope when I was on the road all alone
And when I was feeling down
You pick me up
Brush me off
You help me move on

Now I have a love for myself
So it's time to love someone else
Cause we hold the key
We can be
More than we ever
Fantasize
With open eyes
We realize
That we hold the key
Of all that we meant to be
All that we meant to be
All that we meant
We can be who we wanna be all
If we just believe
Believe that we can be all that we meant to be
