

Sorry

Ruff Endz

I know you've been through some things with this man, for all the times he told you lies and made you cry, baby look, every man is not the same as your last

Sorry, I apologize

Sorry for all the times that he told you lies
How he broke you down and put out your fire
Baby you know I'll always be there by your side
Forget about him leave it all behind

He knows he was wrong girl
But he just don't wanna admit it
Stringing you along girl
'Cause a few things that he didn't consider
The way you love, girl you go all in
It's like you're hearts, is the last to win
Like your soul is looking for its twin
I apologize

Sorry for all the times that he told you lies
Sorry for all the times that he made you cry
The way he left he ain't never really say goodbye
I see the hurt in your eyes
I apologize

Sorry for all the pain and the tears you cried
He wouldn't hear you out, he wouldn't hear your side
He was driving you crazy, took you along for the ride
They say you never miss the water until the well when runs dry, and we don't know why

He knows he was wrong girl
But he just don't wanna admit it
Stringing you along girl
'Cause a few things that he didn't consider
The way you love, girl you go all in
It's like you're hearts, is the last to win
Like your soul is looking for its twin
I apologize

Sorry for all the times that he told you lies
Sorry
Sorry for all the times that he made you cry
I'm sorry
The way he left he ain't never really say goodbye
I see the hurt in your eyes
I apologize

Sorry for all the times that he told you lies
Sorry
Sorry for all the times that he made you cry
I'm sorry
The way he left he ain't never really say goodbye
I see the hurt in your eyes
I apologize
