

Grand Sabbath Pact

Runemagick

As thousands days before
I rise from the grave of misery
It's a good day for a funeral of life
A sabbath for the ones who tasted the fire
Light the candles and summon the lava god
Waiting for the shadows from the other side to appear
The queen of purple darkness arrives with a smile
The wizard laughs upon his throne made of heavy stone
A night of a grand sabbath pact
Makes the fires of hell burn so wild
A night of a grand sabbath pact
...forever
Souls united with blood of sin
As the leafs of heaven burn
The revelation of the skin serpent
Immolate to the gods of lust
Light the candles and summon the lava god
Waiting for the shadows from the other side to appear
We are possessed
The queen of purple darkness arrives with a smile
The wizard laughs upon his throne made of heavy stone
A night of a grand sabbath pact
Makes the fires of hell burn so wild
A night of a grand sabbath pact
...forever
We are possessed
