Proterra

Runrig

as I walk along these shores I am the history within as I climb the mountainside breaking Eden again dark the day, dark the night the warring dust, the morning tribe crushed by a million suns here the heart of you lies over land and sea

I'll come fighting for you
over land and sea
a dawn is breaking before us

Proterra, take this hand the open wound, the promised land breaking the waves, spread the oars cast our badge for the shore
