

Could've Had Love

Ryan Beatty

We were burnin' up like a Summer love
Now you're telling me
That what we got ain't good enough
You don't want me
You don't need me
Too bad, so sad
Enough with that
Ain't it funny
You were telling me
You'd never leave
Now you're telling me
That you're onto better things
This is farewell
This is goodbye
I'll be just fine
I'll be alright

When you show up asking me to come back
I'll be telling you

Girl you could've had
Love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
But you're the one who walked away
So let me give it to you straight
Could've had
Love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
What we had was hard to find
But you want to leave it all behind
And that's okay

Girl you never miss a good thing 'till its gone
Now this good thing is moving on
I don't want ya
I don't need ya
So long, so done
You're not the one
And I hope you don't take it too personal
When you sing along to this on the radio
Every lyric, can you hear it?
The words are mine we had our time

When you show up asking me to come back
I'll be telling you

Girl you could've had
Love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
But you're the one who walked away
So let me give it to you straight
Could've had
But you want to leave it all behind

You can do whatever makes you happy
We'll tell you to stay
We'll stand in the way
I'll tell you'll be okay (my baby)
The future is right infront of you
Infront of you, yeah
Infront of you

Girl you could've had
So let me give it to you straight
Could've had
Love, love, love, love
But you want to leave it all behind
And that's okay

When you show up asking me to come back
I'll be telling you

Could've had
Love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
So let me give it to you straight
Could've had
Love, love, love, love
But you want to leave it all behind
And that's okay

Oh, oh, oh
That's okay
I'm gonna be back
That's okay
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah
