

Genesis

Ryan Beatty

Basically an atheist, he's all that I believe in right now
The torch is out, I'm begging for the torture now
Half a stoner, practically an adolescent, insert here industrial sounds

Ever since Jerusalem, had a change of heart
You went back to genesis, found God
But not the one you were looking for
Not the one you were looking for
Not the one you were looking for
Am I the one you were looking for
Am I the one you were looking for

Erasing my intolerance to nicotine and you are quite the opposite
Lace it with what you offered me
Cured from the ivy
Roses on loan (seeing double)
Laid on a throne (peripheral)
This is on the radio, hold me tightly
Say your name out loud
That's faith, that's fate (now)

Ever since Jerusalem, had a change of heart
You went back to genesis, found God
But not the one you were looking for
Not the one you were looking for
Not the one you were looking for
Am I the one you were looking for
Am I the one you were looking for

Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heaven made the rules

Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room (shine like light)
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room (shine like light)
Heavens in the room
Heavens in the room
Heaven made the rules
