

The Fairy Tale

Ryan Star

Hello my love
Let's sit and talk
About what's been troubling you
About that night
When I was so wrong
The price that I paid
Was so strong

If so much fun can be bad
Then why are you sad?
I know what I did
Made love, now forgive

The body you saw
It was not my own
And if it was, I was alone

For how can you see
A prince or a frog?
The fairy tale's far from gone

If your troubles should stay
I'll scare them away
Your knight has come
Love be light and won

If so much fun can be bad
Then why are you sad?
I know what I did,
Let love now forgive

If your troubles should stay
I'll scare them away
Your knight has come love
Be light and be won
