Wish I called Want to hold you, but I wanted to control you Paranoid What's wrong with me? Why am I pointing out everything wrong with you? Let's talk about last night, who were you with? Why didn't you answer me? All of these questions, criticizing you Bring out the worst in me The problem with you is That I can't get you off my mind And I think about you all the time It's your fault that I don't feel right The problem with you is That you're all that I dream about And you're not right here right now Took a minute, but I figured it out The problem with me is you When we met I was careless with all of my emotions But the closer we get I became more attentive, more protective, more aggressive Let's talk about last night, you went to sleep Didn't even talk to me You left me with questions, agonizing You bring out the worst in me The problem with you is That I can't get you off my mind And I think about you all the time It's your fault that I don't feel right The problem with you is That you're all that I dream about And you're not right here right now Took a minute, but I figured it out The problem with me is you Now I understand why I feel this way You're the one to blame, you should be ashamed You should be ashamed Now I understand why I feel this way You're the one to blame, you should be ashamed You should be ashamed The problem with me is you (Now I understand why I feel this way) With me is you (You're the one to blame, you should be ashamed) (You should be ashamed) Oh, is you (Now I understand why I feel this way) You (You're the one to blame, you should be ashamed)

(You should be ashamed)

The problem with you is
Can't get you off my mind
Think about you all the time
The problem with you is
You're all I dream about
And you're not right here right now
I figured it out, the problem with me is you
