

Diamond in the Sand

Sabrina

I've walked where others fear to tread
Let my conscience rule my head
But I was never quite prepared
When I saw you
Felt I was losing every sense
Lost my mind and lost my strength
When you broke down my defense
What could I do

No more, on the outside looking in
Inject yourself into my skin
Feel the passion flowing through
Wanna uncover you, discover you

Oh, like a diamond in the sand
You revealed yourself to me
Now my heart is in your hand
This is your destiny
(x2)

You're an unsolved mystery
You bring out the animal in me
Like the devil on a shopping spree
You bought my soul

Just like red roses in the rain
Our love grows stronger everyday
In the wilds of the untamed
Wanna uncover, you discover you
