

Carnage Victory

Sacred Steel

All I see are ruins and despair
What a sight of killing peace
A peace in shame
Not a life worth living for
Hail the saviour
Hail the beast

All hail the saviour

What do you cling to
Everything has died
All your glory and your pride

All that you lived for now has died

Alive in ruins
When dreams have turned to dust
And hopes are buried somewhere in the past
A life in ruins
Destruction's all I see
It's carnage victory
Yeah

Here at the end of all your dreams
Of your religion
Of your reign
You pay salute to the colours of our flag
But our enemy you'll stay

Yes
Our enemy you'll stay
And for sure one day we'll pay

Victorious in carnage
You envy those who've died

What price to pay when a nation's on it's knees
Sacrificed on battlefields
What price to pay when the sound of cannons fade
When carnage turns to victory

Again it's carnage victory
All hail the saviour
Hail the beast

Among the ruins
An orphaned child
Peace through genocide
