

Two Circles

Sad Harmony

She kept me warm on cold night
I felt her by my side
Soul, hope, love & muse
Now they are all abused.
You got me down and everyday
More and more...
I got to say
I lose my baby
She started to sing a lullaby

„I remember one suicide.
Did he died? yes he died all right. I can never make up my Mind if it was suicide or not...“
You'd better watch your back tonight
Your life spins in circles twice
Turn around what you found.

My wings are gleaming
I'm flying straight up to the sky
But you were never dreaming
About the freedom, victim run.

But it's too late to realize it all,
I know your love is such a fake,
But I lose my baby,
But you're alive and still hidden in my dreams
