

Don't Forget to Breathe

Saga

Sometimes it's more,
Sometimes it's less
Than what you were expecting
Sometimes the worst,
Sometimes the best
It's what you leave behind

You never know when you'll be
Rid of this place
You never know when you might
Need a new face

Sometimes within,
Sometimes without
The style you've been perfecting
Sometimes you're slow,
Sometimes you're fast
Enough to cheat them blind

One day you've no longer
A need for this place
'Till then the hunger's
Written all over your face

Caught up in the grind is fine
As long as what you hope to find is
Everything you're looking for
Just don't forget to breathe...

Sometimes you're up,
Sometimes you're down
Down and out in Random City
Sometimes a grin,
Sometimes a frown
Reveals you nitty gritty

Caught up in the grind is fine
As long as what you hope to find is
Everything you're looking for
Just don't forget to breathe...

Sometimes it's more,
Sometimes it's less
Than what you were expecting
Sometimes the worst,
Sometimes the best
It's what you leave behind

One day you've no longer
A need for this place
'Till then the hunger's
Written all over your face

Caught up in the grind is fine
As long as what you hope to find is
Just don't forget to breathe...
