

Hands Up

Saga

The saints and the sinners
Are waiting for their paradise
& all the new beginners
Prepare to make the sacrifice
All the sons and the daughters
Who think that they have seen the light
Will surely walk on water
If they give it all they've got tonight
Sometimes that's all it takes
Some quiet desperation and a leap of faith
Hands up, Get in line
It's time to step into the light
Hands up, Wait for the sign
We're gonna raise the roof tonight
And the new solution
Is just a buck or two away
A healthy contribution
Will help to get you on your way
I can see you're nervous
But good things come to those who wait
I'll be at your service
Just don't forget to fill the plate
There's always a saving grace
So tell yourself you're going to a better place
Hands up, Get in line
It's time to step into the light
Hands up, wait for the sign
We're gonna raise the roof tonight
Hands up, Don't be shy
You're finally gonna see the light
Hands up, Wait for the sign
We're gonna raise the roof tonight
[repeat chorus]
