

It Doesn't Matter (Who You Are)

Saga

The future is coming but it's not the same
Now where are you taking me?
Talk to me, talk to me
Now you're gonna make it in my hall of fame
Yes, I've been sinning, will you talk to me?
Talk to me

It doesn't matter who you are
You'll wish upon your lucky star

The dreams you create that keep me up all night
So what are ya tellin' me?
Talk to me, talk to me

So give me some answers or it's fight or flight
Yes, I've been sinning, will you talk to me?
Talk to me

It doesn't matter who you are
You'll wish upon your lucky star

Sometimes we get started then you fade away
And now you've re-started can you
Talk to me, talk to me
We need to talk and I mean right away
Talk to me, talk to me

It doesn't matter who you are
You'll wish upon your lucky star

It doesn't matter who you are
You'll wish upon your lucky star

It doesn't matter who you are...
