

Let It Slide

Saga

Everybody keeps something up in their sleeves
Go ahead, make your bet
So you're the shining new face
You just found out that you can add it again

Bite your lips and then convince me
You're not'
I'm waiting for the proof
Are you gonna let it ride?
I'm waiting with the truth
Are you gonna let it slide?
Are you gonna let it slide?

You seem to forget
But I have yet to see the puzzle inside
Cast your cheeks, press your lips
Stand by and deliver your best alibi

I presume you assume that we're here just to keep your mystery above

So go ahead ,let's just pretend
You don't wanna step over the line
Your conscious is on the loose
You take me for a ride
It's hard to get the truth
Are you gonna let it slide?
Are you gonna let it slide?
Are you gonna let it slide?
You got to let it slide
Now you got to let it slide
Are you gonna let it?
