

One of These Days

Saga

One of these days
One of these days you're gonna
Shake those chains that bind you
But are you strong enough
'Cos it's been more than long enough
One of these days...
One of these days you're gonna
Out your pain behind you
And realize that life goes on
And there's no reason to tag along
Get up, get out, get over it
What's done is done
Stare at the sun
Pick up where you left off
Step up, step out, step over it
You missed the boat
That's all she wrote
So I'd say that is that
Look up, look out, look over it
No time to lose
No more excuse
Or it might be your last
You're up, you're out, you're over it
I see a window
And I know you know it's closing fast
I know you know it's closing fast
One of these days...
One of these days they're gonna
Close in and surround you
And offer you a welcome back
It's nice to have you back on track
One of these days...
One of these days you're gonna
Break that code of silence
Get back to what you love so much
(You've) been too lone out of touch
Get up, get out out, get over it
What's done is done
Stare at the sun
Pick up where you left off
Step up, step out, step over it
You missed that boat
That's all she wrote
So I'd say that is that
Look up, look out, look over it
No time to lose
No more excuse
And I know
You know it's closing fast
Accourding to my info
You've been spotted at the window
You've been dancing with the shadows
All night long
So are you coming to your senses?

And are you dropping your defenses?
Should we start the celebration
Here and now?
One of these days...
Dig down deep and tell yourself
That you've got no regrets
That's about as good as it can get
One of these days...
Wake up and surrender
And tell yourself enough's enough
Today's the day I strut my stuff
What's done is done
Stare at the sun
You missed the boat
That's all she wrote
So I'd say that is that
No time to lose
No more Excuse
Or it might be your last
I see a window
One of these days...
