

The innocent introduction
The none too subtle seduction
The three-ring-halo production
No unforeseen interruptions
One day you said it's perfection
Then made another selection
So thanks to your intervention
I modified my invention
All for one
None for all
Said and done
Make the call
But the ice was nice
That lead you to paradise
When the well ran dry
It lead us to a fork in the road
Yes, the ice was nice
And lead you all the way to paradise
But the quicksand wasn't part of the plan
'Till I let go
Never took no for an answer
Refined your skills as a dancer
Perhaps a change of direction
Was only for your protection
Now that I've got your attention
I'm onto your good intentions
With all your giving and taking
I did more bending than breaking
All for one
None for all
Said and done
Make the call
But the ice was nice
That lead you to paradise
When the well ran dry
It lead us to a fork in the road
Yes, the ice was nice
And lead you all the way to paradise
When the quicksand became a part of the plan
Well I let go
Now that I've got your attention
I'm onto your good intentions
With all your giving and taking
I did more bending than breaking
But the ice was nice
That lead you to paradise
When the well ran dry
It lead us to a fork in the road
Yes, the ice was nice
And lead you all the way to paradise
When the quicksand became a part of the plan
Well I let go
