

Till the Well Runs Dry

Saga

So here I go again
Another first and ten
Make my move and keep my
Eyes on the prize
You know I hesitate
To put my trust in fate
After all we've only
So many tries
I don't want it all
I just don't wanna crawl
Too great a distance
Till the fireworks begin
I've no need for a staff
Follow only the path
Of least resistance, then
Just sit back and breath it in
Such is my appetite
I can keep it up all night
Close my eyes imagine
Wolves at my door
'Cos when I'm in this deep
I don't feel the urge to sleep
Lying here just waiting
For something to explore
When cheap is the talk
I prefere just to walk
Although I'm driven
Turn the page, walk out the door
But prepared for a fall
I'm still grateful for all
That I've been given
Still I feel the need for more... I
Run to the well until the well runs dry
Or my thirst is finally satisfied
Shake that tree until the bough breaks free
Get myself a good look inside
Curl my fist at every twist of fate
It reminds me that I'm still alive
And I'll keep runnin' to the well
Until the well runs dry
And if I step aside
That means I'm satisfied
All is well but when it's
All been said & done
It's neither black nor white
'Cos even when I'm wrong I'm right
And no-one plays a game that's been
All but played and won
The art of the deal
Both excites and appeals
To all my senses
Feel it coursing through my veins
I don't feel sublime
I just don't wanna
Climb too many fences
That should well enough explain... I
Run to the well until the well runs dry

Or my thirst is finally satisfied
Shake that tree until the bough breaks free
It reminds me that I'm still alive
And I'll keep runnin' to the well
(repeat chorus)
So here I go again...
