

Moonlight

Said the Whale

It's not enough just to live a life
Simple measures to survive
It's like, living should be easy, right?
But there's always something
Heavy on my heart, heavy on my mind
Falling on me all the time
There's always something
There's always something

Moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem
Moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem

Give it up just to feel alright
Simple pleasures to suffice, yeah
Never do consider if it's right, it's fleeting
Somewhere in my heart, somewhere in my mind
Falling on me all the time
There's always something
There's always something

Like moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem
Moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem

Moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem
Moonlight
You're not real
You're a dream
Small as you seem
