

Nothing Makes Me Happy

Said the Whale

Nothing makes me happy
Nothing makes me happy

Every time I've lost you
The situations have been
Something like a bad dream
Nothing I can't handle

I can't see what behind the scenes are seen
Nothing makes me happy
I can't plead what I'd really like to plead
Something only I see

And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing feels right
And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing makes me happy
Nothing makes me happy

I can see your heartbeat (Feel your body language)
I can feel you tremble (I can see your hands shaking)
Every time you've asked me (Feel afraid to fake it)
And I don't have an answer (You can never back down)
You can never back down

I can't see what behind the scenes are seen
Nothing makes me happy
I can't plead what I'd really like to plead
Something only I see

And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing feels right
And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing makes me happy
Nothing makes me happy, nothing makes me happy
Nothing makes me happy, nothing makes me happy

And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing feels right
And I know that you know that I know just how it feels inside
When it doesn't feel right, nothing makes me happy
