

The Weight Of The Season

Said the Whale

It's the light that I miss when it's gone

It's the weight of the season
Darkness downpressing on me
It's the weight of the season
Winter on come lethargy

It's a light that I miss when it's gone
It's the warmth of a memory

Gone away is the light
Oh bleak December
Oh holy night
I build a fire from a spark
A beacon light
In the holy dark

It's what I miss when it's gone
