Upset Her

Said the Whale

Having a bad day Sitting on the floor Singing a sad song tonight How could it be That something so easy Never seems to turn out right Sitting on the side of your bed Sorry I broke your heart Even with the gifts I gave you Sorry I broke your heart But I did I did You will Understand, yeah Cross my heart, I know the day Will come when you see the light But now I sleep alone on the bed I made And hope everything turns out alright Sorry that I made you cry Doing the best I can Trying to do what's right I'm trying to be a better man And I will And you will Understand You will This is not goodbye No, I got no regrets And we don't have to say goodbye, yeah Oh, doing the best I can Trying to do what's right And we don't have to say goodbye Goodnight, it's just goodnight Yeah, goodnight, it's goodnight Out of the fire there grows a tree Designed to guiding light And all of the beers and the tears you cry Inspires sad songs tonight Sitting on the side of my bed Sorry I broke your heart I think about the gift you gave me and I'm sorry I broke your heart But I did (Hurt so bad) I did (You know I did) Well, I did (Hurting me) Well, I did

This is not goodbye No, I got no regrets And we don't have to say goodbye, yeah Oh, doing the best I can Trying to do what's right And we don't have to say goodbye Tonight, it's just goodnight, yeah Goodnight, goodnight Goodnight, goodnight
