

The Hunted

Saint Asonia

I'm on my way
Through every day
I'm facing all my faults
All alone
No way home
Afraid to lose it all

I hear you screaming
Bleeding out of the hunter
I open my eyes
And now I realize
I'm just the game
Torn away from my home
Left me crawling
Everything is falling
Now I'm the hunted
I'm the hunted

On your face
A thousand ways
To kill me where I stand
Scarred again
There's no end
This war that I began

I hear you screaming
Bleeding out of the hunter
I open my eyes
And now I realize
I'm just the game
Torn away from my home
Everything is falling
Now I'm the hunted
I'm the hunted
(I'm the hunted)

It never seems to let me be
With its teeth in me
Now I'm the hunted
It never seems to let me be
With its teeth in me
Now I'm the hunted
It never seems to let me be
With its teeth in me
Now I'm the hunted
It never seems to let me be
(It's haunting me)

I hear you screaming
Bleeding out of the hunter
I open my eyes
And now I realize
I'm just the game
Everything I know is falling

Falling down on me
Now I'm the hunted
I'm the hunted
