

Dutch TV

Saint Etienne

One night in Netherlands checking out the Amsterdam scene
Got a room from some old guy outside the rocking machine

Don't know who you are but you can't come in
Turn the TV down, kick the TV in

Old pictures scattered round, all soaked in alcohol
Next thing the lights go out, I heard a bang on the wall

Don't know who you are but you can't come in
Turn the TV down, kick the TV in
