

Feed Me Now

Saint Motel

Lay me down, the California dream's on my mind
Quiet and calm, the benefits of finer red wine
Here, the pains of growing up
I feel it inside, I feel it coming up

If you feed me now, I'll be on my way out the door
But if you tease me now, I'll just come back hungry for more
Cause a taste of your honey's sweet

Back to back, the days they go make love with the nights
Moving fast, you overlook the joys in plain sight
Here, the pains of growing up
I feel it inside, I feel it coming up

If you feed me now, I'll be on my way out the door
But if you tease me now, I'll just come back hungry for more
Cause a taste of your honey's sweet
And I'm one who likes to eat

Do you feel? Do you feel it?
Do you feel? Do you feel it?
Do you feel? I do, I do. Do you feel it?
Do you feel? I do, I do. I feel all of it
Do you feel? I do, I do. Do you feel it?
Do you feel? I do, I do. I feel all of it
Do you feel? I do, I do. Do you feel it?
Do you feel? I do, I do. I feel all of it

The pains of growing up
I feel it inside, I feel it coming up
If you feed me now, I'll be on my way out the door
But if you tease me now, I'll just come back hungry for more
Cause a taste of your honey's sweet
And I'm one who likes to eat
