

You Do It Well

Saint Motel

If night time, should come
Before you come back to us here at Great Rock
We'll tell them to hold-up, you complete us
You're our only savior since you destroyed our Gods
You know us so well

You're brave like a mountain, ah ah
You fly like the eagle, ah ah
You do things that we'll never do, uh huh
And you do them well

If sunshine should shine
And tear you away from us back up in the sky
We know that you'll come back, matter of time
You own all our hearts and souls and you own our minds
You know us so well

You're brave like a mountain, ah ah
You fly like the eagle, ah ah
You do things that we'll never do, uh huh
And you do them well, uh huh
And you do them well, uh huh
And you do it

Wait for, your emperor, to come back again
Go repent, he's coming
He's our size, but he's not just, he's not just, a man
So much more, he's better

Wait for, your emperor, to come back again
Go repent, he's coming
He's our size, but he's not just, he's not just, a man
So much more, he's better
