

Oh Brother

Saint Raymond

You've seen this all before
But you don't make a sound
What is there to gain?
Thought I could flush you out
I know you have your doubts
You turn this inside out

I'll be your parachute
When you are falling through
When all hope disappears
But who is ever there
To see you face your fear
Your path is so unclear
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh

Who are you to say
We can't stand up tall
Face it all again
Show me where you hide
Bring this back to life
Who will hear us cry
Oh, brother
Oh, brother
Oh, brother
Oh, brother

Behind you all the way
Just want to hear you say
That you still got the faith
'Cause here in the dark
You can fall apart
And we won't see a thing

I'll be your parachute
When you are falling through
When all hope disappears
But who is ever there
To see you face your fear
Your path is so unclear
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh

Who are you to say
We can't stand up tall
Face it all again
Show me where you hide
Bring this back to life
Who will hear us cry
Oh, brother
Oh, brother
Oh, brother
Oh, brother

Oh, brother
Change who you are
Light up the storm

Fire in your heart

Oh, brother
