

It's Only You (Part II)

Salem Al Fakir

Shouldn't tell you all I got inside,
But I just need to let it out.
Let me say it if you don't mind;
It's only you I think about.

Oh, Oh
When I see you, can't stop smiling.
Just want to hold on tight.
I know that must be love; no doubt.
That must be love; no doubt.

I can't sleep when all is spinning round
I need to figure out how this can be so hard for me, when it shouldn't be
Can't get you off my mind.
It's only you I think about.

If you ever would be mine
I would never ever let you down
If you ever would be mine

If you ever would be mine
I would never ever let you down
If you ever would be mine

If you ever would be mine
I would never ever let you down
If you ever would be mine

I can't sleep when all is spinning round
I need to figure out how this can be
so hard for me, when it shouldn't be
Can't get you off my mind.
It's only you I think about.
