

I Got Everything I Need

Sam & Dave

I don't mind people laughing at the clothes I wear
I know something they don't know

You don't laugh at the holes in my shoes
You make my clothes feel brand new
I got everything I need, because I got you

When I take you out somewhere
And bus fare is all I can spare
You just smile, you don't even seem to care
People laugh at me inside
When they see me bumming a ride
I got everything I need, because I've got you

And I all I want to do right now is tell you...

When I take you out somewhere
And bus fare is all I can spare
You just smile, you don't even seem to care
People laugh at me inside
When they see me bumming a ride
But I got everything I need
Because I've got you

And I all I want to do right now is tell you...
