

No Explanations

Sam Phillips

I thought if he understood
He wouldn't treat me this way
No explanations, no more explanations
She looked me over and over
And couldn't locate me
No explanations, no more explanations

I found some miracle like
Running away from you
No more explanations
This is bigger than you
And a part of the truth
You trust
This is the breaking of you

Running out of here
Time you're saving
No explanation
There's only so much pain
They can (?)
No explanations, no more explanations

This is bigger than you
And a part of the truth
You trust
This is the breaking of you
