

Let the Love In

Sam Sparro

Something tugging
Pulling down on your heart
Pull it hard enough
And you just might fall apart
If it's there on your sleeve
Then you just might wear it out
You've got let some love in
And let some love out

Let the love in.
Let the love out. Tonight.
Let the love in.
Let the love out. Alright.
Heaven and hell is right there in your heart
So many people, living in the dark
And you know it's so easy, to be filled with spite
But it's up to you, to live in the light

Let the love in.
Let the love out. Tonight.
Let the love in.
Let the love out. Alright.

Love... gives of itself, freely, freely
Love... asks not in return
Cause love is to burn
So let it burn

Let the love in. (let the love in)
Let the love out. Tonight.
Let the love in.
Let the love out. Alright.
Let the love in.
Let the love out. Tonight.
Let the love in.
Let the love out. Alright.
