

There for You

Sam Tsui

There for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

I see you well, got yourself someone brand new
He fills your cups, live it up, really suits you
I... just watch you chase that high
He picks you up, turns the key, takes you away
But he can't see what you need, what you don't say
I... don't think he's really on your side

Who's gonna be there for you
When it gets tough
Who's gonna be there for you
To give you what you need
Who's gonna be there for you
Is his love enough, is he everything you need
The way I used to be

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be...

Through the glass, watch his hands on your body
Through the night, driving fast down the side streets
Now... I'm watching all your walls come down
But he don't know you the way he pretends to
He's just a cameo, won't be there when you call
No he don't see you at all, ooh

Who's gonna be there for you
When it gets tough
Who's gonna be there for you
To give you what you need
Who's gonna be there for you
Is his love enough, is he everything you need
The way I used to be

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be...

Who's gonna be there when the music stop
Who's gonna be there when you're down to lift you up
Are you sure, are you sure that his love's strong enough
Wasn't my love strong, strong enough
Wasn't my love strong enough

Who's gonna be there when the music stop
Who's gonna be there when you're down to lift you up
Are you sure, are you sure that his love's strong enough
Wasn't my love strong, strong enough
Wasn't my love strong enough

Who's gonna be there for you
When it gets tough
Who's gonna be there for you
To give you what you need
Who's gonna be there for you
Is his love enough, is he everything you need
The way I used to be

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be there for you
There for you
There for you
Gonna be everything you need

Who's gonna be there for you
