Messenger of the Light

I am the envoy of the son of the dawn A slave to the star of the morning I am here to prepare the coming of our lord To overthrow the thesis of Metatron To contradict the resurrection of pig See the ones that will rise - will die And I'll torment their souls Beyond the Styx and Acheron Beyond the kingdom of Hades I am the envoy of the son of the dawn A slave to the star of the morning See in me our ideal See in me our new god
