

I saw love's smiling face
On a raindrop resting in a solitude
Dancing through the amber sky
As the stars are falling down
They become so intertwined

I just wanna, wanna be
Be the girl that I once used to be
Loving life, flying free
But I need to find my way back home

I just wanna, wanna be
Be the girl that I once used to be
Loving life, flying free
But I need to find my way home

Love is trapped inside her heart
Until the truth keeps pulling her upon the shore
Waves of love won't let her be
And fighting eyes, like once a prize
It takes 3 to see

I just wanna, wanna be
Be the girl that I once used to be
Loving life, flying free
But I need to find my way home

I just wanna, wanna be
Be the girl that I once used to be
Loving life, flying free
But I need to find my way home

I just wanna, wanna be
Be the girl that I once used to be
Loving life, flying free
But I need to find my way home
