

Hear the waves of the sea
They hit the shore
Close my eyes for a moment
I don't need more
I know I'm home
Home
Feel the rays of the sun
They warm my skin
Voices of those before me
Whisper in the wind
It won't be long
Come on
Syria
Winds of change are blowing
Stop and take a breath
Syria
Syria
I can see the future
We will make it there
Syria
In the land of my father
I take a stand
I see the faces of martyr
I know who I am
This is my home
Walk the street and I notice
The people smile
Had a lot on their shoulders
Carried from miles
It won't be long come on
Syria
Winds of change are blowing
Stop and take a breath
Syria
Syria
I can see the future
We will make it there
Syria
Syria
Winds of change are blowing
Stop and take a breath
Syria
Syria
I can see the future
We will make it there
Syria
