Go

Heaven sends me here to you And if a-you fear you've reason to Open up all seven seals The beast is come to claim the youth

Archangel Archangel Defiant brood Defiant brood I call on you

Casted down my bretheren
Rebels from authority
Power, pride, contempt and lust
All these things I give to you

Archangel
Archangel
Defiant brood
Defiant brood
I call on you

I am not your son of God
The prince of light will show no fear
Mine is that which rules this world
The beast is come, I am the end

Archangel Archangel

And when they cast out the brood For the sin of pride misused And when they cast down to Hell Fucking brood

Archangel Archangel

Heaven sends me here to you And if a-you fear you've reason to Open up all seven seals The beast is come to claim the youth

Archangel Archangel Archangel Go
