

If You Say So

Samiam

Wonder if I'll ever get ahead
I wouldn't mind, it's only fair
Don't know how much longer
I can walk around pretending I don't care

Just a little bit to feel at ease again
No more belly ache, no more humbling

If you say so, if you say so
If you say so, if you say so

Wonder why I worry so much all the time
If I can make my rent
Guess you've never seen what I'd come home to
If I had to move back in

Just a little lift to feel on top again
No more phony grin, no more stumbling

If you say so, if you say so
If you say so, if you say so

Wonder if I'll ever get ahead
I wouldn't mind, it's only fair
Don't know how much longer
I can walk around pretending I don't care

If you say so, if you say so
If you say so, if you say so
(The rest of your life)
