

2nd Time Around

Sammie

Before you call him, girl, I need for you to check your voicemail
I left you somethin'
I left a little somethin'
For you to hear, baby, won't you hear me out? (Hear me out)
I know I hurt you, truth be told, you hurt me, too
Don't believe it's all for nothin'
I don't believe it's all for nothin'
Baby, believe after the rain the sun comes out

The house you wanted, girl, I bought it
Your dream car, yeah, it's sittin' in the driveway (Driveway)
Your brand new puppy, girl, it's sittin' right beside me
So baby, won't you make this house a home?
I'm all alone on a Friday
But you'd be here if I could have it my way (My way)
I swear I'm goin' down, baby, mayday (Mayday)
God didn't make a man to be on his own

I know I let you down (Down)
But I'm much better now
Yeah, we'll be better now
The second time around (Uh)
The second time around
But I'm much better now
Yeah, we'll be better now
The second time around
The second time around

If it's really love, you can let it go (Go)
It'll come back
And if you get a second chance, you better grab that, yeah
Girl, I'm holdin' on to you, oh-oh (You, you, you, you)
And every breath that I take, every mornin' I wake
I'll dedicate, won't hesitate
Won't have to wait, won't have to think
Baby, you'll know (Know, oh)
Since then I've grown
Baby, I've grown

The house you wanted, girl, I bought it (Yeah)
Your dream car, yeah, it's sittin' in the driveway (With you)
Your brand new puppy, girl, it's sittin' right beside me (And God, it's so cute)
So baby, won't you make this house a home?
I'm all alone on a Friday (I'm by myself)
But you'd be here if I could have it my way (Oh, my, my)
I swear I'm goin' down, baby, mayday
God didn't make a man to be on his own

But I'm much better now
Yeah, we'll be better now
The second time around
The second time around
Yeah
I know I let you down
But I'm much better now
Yeah, we'll be better now

The second time around
