

3-Side

Sammie

Wonder what you tell your friends about me
Do you tell them the truth or you leave things out?
Can you live in your truth so you live without (Oh, oh)
I wonder what you tell your mom about me (About me)
Bet you the hero and I'm the villain
You paint a puzzle with missing pieces

It feels like I'm dreaming, wake up, wake up
They say we break up to make up, but it's over for good
Yeah, we're over for good

Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (Three-side, three-side)
Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (Three-side, three-side)

Yeah, I don't wanna put the blame on you
But you ain't 'bout to put the blame on me
Truth is, baby, we ain't work (No)
Key word in that is we (Key word)
So baby, I ain't gotta lie, baby, I ain't gotta flex
I ain't never been petty 'bout an ex (Ain't never had no petty in me)
I'ma give myself some time, things heal in time
Due time, I'm on to the next (Oh, believe that)

It feels like I'm dreaming, wake up, wake up
They say we break up to make up, but it's over for good
Yeah, we're over for good

Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (The whole truth)
Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (The truth)

Dreaming, wake up, wake up
Break up to make up, but it's over for good
Over for good

It feels like I'm dreaming, wake up, wake up
They say we break up to make up, but it's over for good
Yeah, we're over for good (Oh)

Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (Three-side, three-side)
Baby, there's your side, your side
Baby, there's my side, my side
I'm living in three-side, three-side, the truth (Three-side, three-side)

Dreaming, wake up, wake up
Break up to make up, but it's over for good
Over for good
It feels like I'm dreaming, wake up, wake up

They say we break up to make up, but it's over for good
Yeah, we're over for good
