Kim said say hate me, heard that she was datin' other niggas
Never been a hater, tell me baby, who them other niggas?
Stacy hit my line, we caught up, she say she happy
If she ain't never moved away, this wouldn't have happened, nahh
Britt called my phone and asked me, she asked was I married now
My reply was I'm too busy working and stacking my bank account

I've been catching these planes, I've been doing my thang
Forgot about love, while I'm at it I've learned some bad habits, I'm shamed
Is this part of the game, that I chose to play
Been giving up things that I need for my wants, are they one in the same?
Swear this shit is so real, yeah yeah
Swear this shit is so real, yeah yeah

Yeah
I wanted to be true yeah, for somebody
Made some mistakes, all in my past
Yeah, girls, I'm sorry
Okay I cheated a few times, no excuses
Don't even get me started with this music
My mama still working, I wanna retire my mama
My daddy, he doing too rough, he be stuck in the drama
And my sister living with me now
And my brother counting on me now
And to cope with all of this bullshit
I've been messing round with these females
Lord forgive me for my ways
Oh how I pray for better days

So to my exes I know I been living reckless
And I'm asking for forgiveness
Yeah, I hope ya'll hear the message
The more I shine, the more friends I lose
Yeah, the more friends I lose
Two of my niggas straight stole from me, shit
See the more friends I lose
All of these woman got a hold of me
No, they won't let me loose
And the liquor got control of me
